

(2) Any trustee who fails to comply with the provisions of this subsection shall be removed by court order and a substitute trustee shall be named in lieu of the trustee so removed.

(i) The filing of a RICO lien notice shall not affect the use to which real property or a beneficial interest owned by the person named in the RICO lien notice may be put or in the right of the person to receive any avails, rents, or other proceeds resulting from the use and ownership, but not the sale, of the property until a judgment of forfeiture is entered.

(j) All forfeitures or dispositions under this section shall be made with due provision for the rights of innocent persons.

“§ 75D-14. Release of lien notice.— The Attorney General filing the RICO lien notice, or the court for good cause shown at anytime, may release in whole or in part any RICO lien notice or may release any specific property or beneficial interest from the RICO lien notice upon such terms and conditions as he may determine. Any release of a RICO lien notice executed by the Attorney General or ordered by the court may be filed in the official records of any county. No charge or fee shall be imposed for the filing of any release of a RICO lien notice.”

Sec. 2. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.

Sec. 3. This act shall become effective October 1, 1986 and shall expire October 1, 1989.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified, this the 12th day of July, 1986.

CHAPTER 1000AN ACT TO EXPAND THE NORTH CAROLINA CENTER FOR MISSING CHILDREN TO INCLUDE MISSING PERSONS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

Section 1. Part 5A of Chapter 143B is amended by rewriting that Part to read:

“Part 5A.

“North Carolina Center for Missing Persons.

“§ 143B-495. North Carolina Center for Missing Persons established.—There is established within the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety the North Carolina Center for Missing Persons, which shall be organized and staffed in accordance with applicable laws. The purpose of the Center is to serve as a central repository for information regarding missing persons and missing children, with special emphasis on missing children. The Center may utilize the Federal Bureau of Investigation/National Crime Information Center’s missing person computerized file (hereinafter referred to as FBI/NCIC) through the use of the Police Information Network in the North Carolina Department of Justice.
